Catholic Schools Week

January 28, 2024

The theme for Catholic Schools week is United in Faith and Community. We know that parents are the first teachers of their children. For that reason our Catholic school communities need to contain the family as a part of each school. We work better together as principal, teachers, staff, and parents. We are constantly trying to strengthen our Catholic identity in our schools. Our hope is that our students will have the ability to go out and share the faith once they go out into the world. Taking Christ out to those who are seeking and to be a witness to their faith.

The schools in our family of parishes are truly thriving. We have schools that have earned the Blue Ribbon and have held the bar high in academics and a strength in their Catholic identity.

I am so proud of the work being done. Please keep our parents, teachers, administrators, staff and students in our prayers. And please consider coming out and joining us for a fun night of trivia at the St. Cecilia School Trivia Night, Friday, February, 9 at 7 PM in the school gymnasium. The proceeds help fund the St. Cecilia students trip to Washington D.C. Not only is it a fun night with drinks and snacks, but there is also some great competition and chances to show what you know ... or may not! See the sign-up sheet on page 9 of the bulletin.

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jesse

Palms to Be Collected

Every year before Ash Wednesday, we collect the palms from previous Palm Sunday services and then burn them as part of our closing of Ordinary Time. Each church will have a basket to collect last year's blessed palms and then they will be brought to St. Cecilia for the service to be burned so we can use the ashes on Ash Wednesday.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

This Sunday begins Catholic Schools Week. For years, this has been a Hallmark of every Diocese. We should thank St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Bishop John Carroll, and St. John Neumann for starting the Catholic School system in the United States. I thank our administration, teachers, and staff. Thank you, parents, for bringing your children here. May God bless all.

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

Saints for Young Readers for Every Day by Sister Susan Helen Wallace

In the month of January, we celebrate the feast days of three well-known saints related to Catholic schools. January 4 is the feast day of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, who is recognized as the founder of many catholic schools through the Sisters of Charity, including St. Mary School! St. Angela Merici (January 27) is also significant for many local students as the founder of the Ursuline order. St. Thomas Aquinas (January 28) is the universal patron of colleges, universities and schools. Did you know that St. Thomas Aquinas was nicknamed “the dumb ox” because despite being very intelligent, he was humble and quiet? Another saint, maybe not as renowned, is St. Basil the Great whose feast day is January 2. St. Basil was a respected teacher in his time who became a priest and a bishop. He used his education and gift for teaching to help people around him become closer to God. You can read about these saints and many others in the book Saints for Young Readers for Every Day by Sr. Susan Helen Wallace, FSP. The two-volume set highlights a saint for every day of the year. Written in a conversational format that is easy to understand, each description paints a brief picture over one-two short pages of the lives of 365 saints. As we commemorate Catholic schools week, we celebrate that we have so many amazing saints to learn about and from! This book set (targeted to young people, but enlightening for anyone) is an excellent way to discover more about the lives of the saints. (Reviewed by Shannon Holtman, St. Mary School Librarian)

RETURNING THIS SPRING:
WOMEN'S SMALL GROUPS

"Faithful, highly committed Christians often fall hardest into the trap of spiritual perfectionism... We've forgotten the faith's central truth: that Jesus came to save us because we cannot save ourselves."
Colleen Campbell

Young adult women from across the Eastside Family are invited to join us for an 8-week book study on Colleen Carroll Campbell's winner of the 2020 Catholic Press Association Book Award, The Heart of Perfection. A profound examination of the ways in which perfectionism has pervaded 21st century womanhood, not just personally and professionally but spiritually, Campbell offers antidotes through the stories of her own life and those of saintly figures which help temper our internal critique and reclaim our identity as inherently loved by God.

Worship Aid for the Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Dt 18:15-20

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the LORD said to me, 'This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.'"

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 95:1-2, 6-7, 7-9

If to-day you hear his voice, hard-en not your hearts.

Come, let us ring out our joy to the LORD;
hail the rock who saves us.
Let us come into his presence, giving
thanks;
let us hail him with a song of praise. R.

O come; let us bow and bend low.
Let us kneel before the God who
made us,
for he is our God and we

the people who belong to his pasture,
the flock that is led by his hand. R.

O that today you would listen to his voice!
"Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
as on that day at Massah in the desert
when your forebears put me to the test;
when they tried me, though they saw
my work." R.

Second Reading

1 Cor 7:32-35

Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties. An unmarried man is anxious about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. But a married man is anxious about the things of the world, how he may please his wife, and he is divided. An unmarried woman or a virgin is anxious about the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in both body and spirit. A married woman, on the other hand, is anxious about the things of the world, how she may please her husband. I am telling you this for your own benefit, not to impose a restraint upon you, but for the sake of propriety and adherence to the Lord without distraction.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mk 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes. In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!" The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him. All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand
of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father
and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic
and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.
