The Closing of Ordinary Time

February 4, 2024

Please join us on Tuesday, February 13, at 6:30 PM for our Closing of Ordinary Time Service at St. Cecilia. Let us gather as a family and prepare ourselves to revive ashes to kick off our Lenten journey. Please bring your palms from the previous year and add them to the baskets at each of the churches. The palms will be burned and the ashes used for Ash Wednesday. At the closing, you will see the items removed from the altar as we prepare for Lent. The triptych doors will close and the last Alleluia will be sung. This is to prepare our hearts for the upcoming forty days. We want to draw closer to our Lord during these days. Some ways to do this include thoughtfully planning our alms giving and how we are going to be charitable and spending more time in prayer with Our Lord. Lent is a time of repentance and a time to turn away from sin. It is a time to move away from all of our distractions in life and to fast and abstain. If you are having a difficult time with distractions, think about what you need to give up for the forty days. Remember, this is a time for you to sacrifice something. Do not give up something and then complain about it, which will make others around you suffer more. Instead, think of Jesus' suffering in the Passion which will help us realize what you've given up is so small compared to what He suffered for us.

After the Closing, please join us for an ice cream social in the St. Cecilia Commons!

Amen? Amen.

Fr. Jessie

ASH WEDNESDAY MASS SCHEDULE

Oratory — 11:45 AM | St. Cecilia — 9:00 AM, 12:10 PM, & 5:30 PM | St. Mary — 6:45 AM, 9:00 AM, & 7:00 PM

Want to Play 31?

Join the 40s Plus Fun Bunch for an afternoon of playing 31! Never played before? No problem! All it takes is a two-minute lesson. We will meet in the St. Cecilia Commons on February 11, at 3PM. Bring a small snack to share. Please RSVP to stcfunbunch@gmail.com so we know how many pennies to bring.

EPIC Senior Ministry 65+

Extraordinary Parishioners in Community is having their first event of the year on Wednesday, February 21, from 11:30 AM-2 PM. We will start with a tour and history of our beautiful St. Mary Church. Please join us in the back of church at 11:30. Our long-time parishioner and historian, Ron Lamping, will lead the tour. Following the tour, we will gather in Robisch Hall for a deluxe LaRosa's lasagna lunch, complete with all the trimmings and includes water, coffee, and soft drinks. Cost is $13.00 per person payable at time of reservation. RSVP by February 16 to mmandrum@eastside.org.

From the Oratory of Saint John Vianney

The Oratory is part of St. Cecilia Parish and devoted to prayer for the priests of our Archdiocese, through the intercession of St. John Vianney, patron of parish priests. Please join us this week in praying for Fr. Benedict O'Cinnsealaigh, Fr. Jim Walsh, Fr. Chris Lack, Fr. Michael Cordier, and Fr. Patrick Welsh (retired). Special thanks to those who have offered to help send notes of thanks and encouragement to the priests we are praying for each week!

Monday, February 5, there will be a HOLY HOUR at the Oratory from 7-8 pm. This is a beautiful way to rest in the Lord, offer Him all your concerns, and join with our community in praying for the holiness and well-being of all our priests. The Holy Hour happens on the first Monday of the month.

Born in the Dominican Republic, ELIZABETH LANGE immigrated to the United States in the early 1800s, settling in Baltimore, where she opened a school in her home for African-American children. Desiring to consecrate her life to the Lord, Elizabeth was encouraged by a Sulpician priest to found an order for African-American women, dedicated to the education of girls. In 1829, Mother Mary Elizabeth Lange founded the Oblate Sisters of Providence, and she was declared Venerable in 2023 by Pope Francis.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

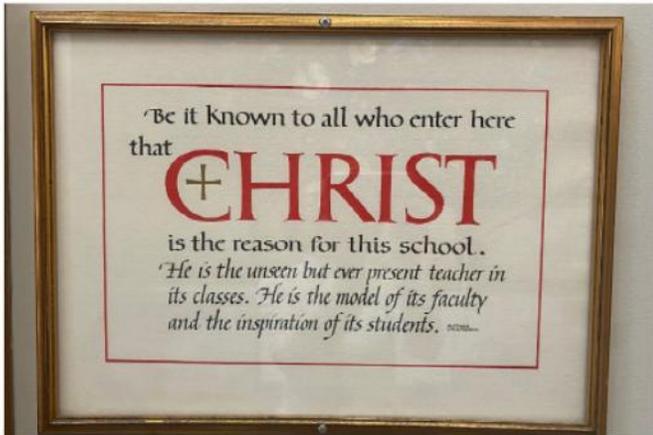

Notice that the first thing Peter's mother-in-law did after she was cured was to wait on Jesus and the others. Isn't that how we are to live our lives? Selfless and not selfish. There is an old saying that sums it up nicely. I shall pass this way but once. Any kindness I can do, let me not defer; let me do it now, for I shall not pass this way again.

Catholic Stuff You Should Know with The Companions of Christ

Catholic Stuff You Should Know is a Catholic riff on the podcast format brought to prominence by Stuff You Should Know. The podcast is hosted by a rotating group of priests from the Diocese of Denver who refer to themselves as the Companions of Christ. The podcast takes an intentionally lighthearted approach to some very important theological and philosophical questions intended to make the deeper truths encapsulated in them accessible to the average person. The episodes frequently begin with banter, intended to feel as if you were walking in mid conversation with some friends, this banter eventually gives way to the proper topic of the episode, usually proposed by one of the hosts. The hosts then discuss the topic, sometimes in great detail, other times as a surface level introduction to help the novice dip their toe in the headier topics without being caught in a theological riptide. They are very intentional to not be pulled towards an extreme, working diligently to express the concerns of both progressive thought and conservative understanding to help best express the happy medium we are so often called to champion as Catholics. Some of the episodes I would particularly recommend are "Episode 607: A Primer for Unsettled Lay People," "Episode 594: The Crisis of Faith," "The Liturgical Ideal of the Church," and "Episode 523: Don't Be Weird." Feast of St. Francis de Sales

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Today we celebrate the feast of St. Francis de Sales, principal patron of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati. As a bishop and renowned confessor and spiritual guide, St. Francis de Sales led people to follow the Lord more devoutly, and his writings have inspired countless thousands over the past 400 years to walk the path of holiness. It is good for us to consider how we also can lead people to Christ in our time and place, particularly through the parishes of the archdiocese.

At this midpoint of the second year of Beacons of Light, most Families of Parishes have progressed through Phase 1, which is focused on leadership. The leadership principle states, “Pastors, in collaboration with parochial vicars, deacons and lay ministers, according to their proper roles and charisms, share responsibility for pastoral leadership. The spiritual, physical and mental health and ongoing support of ordained and lay leaders is vital for Families of Parishes.”

Beacons of Light is a process of pastoral planning to best arrange all the resources of the archdiocese to proclaim the Gospel and make disciples in this particular time and place. The goals and aspirations of this process have their roots in the Great Commission given by our Lord to the apostles: “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you” (Mt. 28:19-20). Thus, the purpose of Beacons of Light is perennial, and will endure well beyond my tenure as your archbishop or the terms of our pastors, parochial vicars, deacons, lay staff, or parishioner leaders.

The decisions regarding how to best arrange resources – human, financial, physical – to pursue our God-given mission will be discerned and made locally, specific to the circumstances and opportunities within each Family of Parishes. Leadership is and will continue to be essential to this process. Over the past eighteen months, Family Leadership Teams have come together, key staff members have been designated or are being hired, and leadership training has been provided. This is only the beginning. As the leadership principle of Beacons of Light indicates, there is an ongoing need for priests, deacons, and lay leaders to grow in skill and collaboration to discern the best steps toward missionary discipleship in their respective Families.

In the recent Parish Vitality survey that many of you completed, leadership was identified among the highest needs for the future of our parishes. Please pray for all the leaders – priests, deacons, and lay leaders – in our archdiocese that they may fruitfully encourage others to radiate the love of Christ to all. I am deeply grateful for all of you who, in this way, serve the mission of the Church in and through your parish and Family of Parishes. May God bless each of you as you continue this holy work.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Dennis M. Schnurr
Archbishop of Cincinnati

Worship Aid for the Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Jb 7:1-4, 6-7

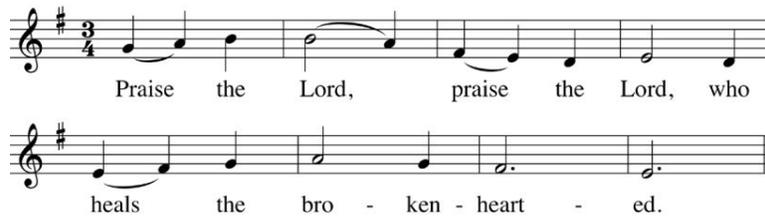

Job spoke, saying: Is not man's life on earth a drudgery? Are not his days those of hirelings? He is a slave who longs for the shade, a hireling who waits for his wages. So I have been assigned months of misery, and troubled nights have been allotted to me. If in bed I say, "When shall I arise?" then the night drags on; I am filled with restlessness until the dawn. My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle; they come to an end without hope. Remember that my life is like the wind; I shall not see happiness again.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 147:1-2, 3-4, 5-6

How good to sing psalms to our God;
how pleasant to chant fitting praise!
The LORD builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles; R.

He heals the brokenhearted;
he binds up all their wounds.

He counts out the number of the stars;
he calls each one by its name. R.

Our Lord is great and almighty;
his wisdom can never be measured.
The LORD lifts up the lowly;
he casts down the wicked to the ground. R.

Second Reading

1 Cor 9:16-19, 22-23

Brothers and sisters: If I preach the gospel, this is no reason for me to boast, for an obligation has been imposed on me, and woe to me if I do not preach it! If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship. What then is my recompense? That, when I preach, I offer the gospel free of charge so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel.

Although I am free in regard to all, I have made myself a slave to all so as to win over as many as possible. To the weak I became weak, to win over the weak. I have become all things to all, to save at least some. All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Mk 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew with James and John. Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever. They immediately told him about her. He approached, grasped her hand, and helped her up. Then the fever left her and she waited on them. When it was evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons, not permitting them to speak because they knew him. Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed. Simon and those who were with him pursued him and on finding him said, "Everyone is looking for you." He told them, "Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also. For this purpose have I come." So he went into their synagogues, preaching and driving out demons throughout the whole of Galilee.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:

*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

1. Now thank we all our God
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In whom his world rejoices;
Who from our mothers' arms
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2. O may this gracious God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us;
Preserve us in his grace,
And guide us in distress,
And free us from all harm
Till heaven we possess.

3. All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and him who reigns
With them in highest heaven--
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heav'n adore---
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

Choral Meditation - 10:30 Mass By Your Hand, You Feed Your People

*By your hand, you feed your people, food of angels, heaven's bread;
For these gifts we did not labor, by your grace have we been fed;
Christ's own Body, blessed and broken cup o'erflowing, life outpoured,
Given as a living token of your world redeemed, restored.
In this meal we taste your sweetness, bread for hunger, wine of peace;
Holy Word and Holy Wisdom satisfy our deepest needs.
Christ's own Body, blessed and broken cup o'erflowing, life outpoured,
Given as a living token of your world redeemed, restored.
Send us now with faith and courage to the hungry, lost, bereaved;
In our living and our dying, we become what we receive:
Christ's own Body, blessed and broken cup o'erflowing, life outpoured,
Given as a living token of your world redeemed, restored.*
