May: The Month of Mary

April 28, 2024

The month of Mary is celebrated in the Eastside Family with May Crownings and our school children praying the rosary. This is a good time to reboot and start dedicating a time to pray a rosary and ask our Mother Mary to intercede for us for all of our needs and prayers.

Many people kick off the month of May by also creating a Mary garden. There are many sites online explaining the significance of the different flowers. If you and your family are creating a special Mary garden this year, please send me pictures!

Another way to honor Mary is by bringing flowers to church. You can place a vase of flowers in our Mary altar during the month of May. Let's make all of our Mary altars in the Eastside Family be filled with flowers to show how much we love the Blessed Mother!

Amen? Amen.

From the Desk of Fr. Ken

Today's Gospel deals with the vine and the branches. If you really want to be a true disciple of the Lord, you must be a part of Him. You cannot be a Lone Ranger and think you can do it all by yourself. Ask yourself this question: Are you a part of the Lord and His Love, or are you not? On this special day, May the Lord always be with our First Communicants.

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST’S CORNER

The Dialogue by St. Catherine of Siena

When I met St. Catherine of Siena and heard her story, it was the first time that I felt truly understood by a saint. Whether it was the deep desire she had to know and love the Lord, her characteristic zeal which prompted her to engage in sometimes difficult conversations, or the love she discovered for the Dominican charism, as a twenty-year-old college student I felt like I had found a new saintly best friend. One of the greatest gifts that St. Catherine was able to give me as I grew in this connection with her was her dialogue with Jesus. As a mystic, St. Catherine had these profound encounters with Christ where she was able to speak to him through ecstatic visions. These are detailed in the compilations of her writings, called The Dialogue. In reading them, it was so striking to me to see that the same woman, whose legacy included moments like helping to reunite the papacy after the scandal of Avignon, possessed a heart of such tenderness, humility, and docility to the will of God. When I look around at the modern world’s ideas of what it means to be a “strong woman”, so often they neglect the gentler side of the feminine genius. St. Catherine, like our Blessed Mother whose month we’re about to celebrate on the heels of this saint’s feast day tomorrow, demonstrates that a rich interior life of prayer and total dependence on the Trinity equips us to embrace the mission we are called to in God’s providence. We are nourished for all the Lord desires for us to do in our lives through a close communion with and constant trust in Him. I first turned to The Dialogue because I wanted to hear Jesus’ voice speaking to a Church Doctor and beloved saint, but what I began to hear was His voice calling out to me and inviting me into my own ongoing conversation of love and the life of discipleship. And isn’t that what any good friend does: lead you to a deeper encounter with the Lord? Befriend St. Catherine yourself through reading this book, and I promise she’ll do the same for you! (Reviewed by Haley Metzger)

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Acts 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus. The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 22:26-27, 28, 30, 31-32

I will praise you, Lord, I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people, I will praise you, Lord.

My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the LORD, those who seek him.
May your hearts live on forever and ever! R.
All the earth shall remember and return to the LORD,
all families of the nations worship before him.

They have eaten and adore him, all who sleep in the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust. R.
And my soul shall live for him, my descendants serve him.
They shall tell of the LORD to generations yet to come,
declare his saving justice to peoples yet unborn:
"These are the things the LORD has done." R.

Second Reading

1 Jn 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Jn 15:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father
and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come.
Amen.
