From the Desk of Fr. Ken

St. Damien was a priest sent to the Hawaiian island of Molokai, which was a leper colony. At first, he was scared, but then he overcame that fear, lived with the lepers, and prayed with them. Eventually, St. Damien picked up the disease itself, which is called Hanson's disease. He truly lived out the gospel message: Love one another as I loved you.

BOOK REVIEW

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

The World's First Love: Mary, Mother of God by Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen's book, The World's First Love: Mary, Mother of God, provides the reader with beautiful reflections on all aspects of our Blessed Mother. Unlike some other Marian literature, however, Bishop Sheen also goes into rich theological discourses on the meaning of humanity, the state of the modern world, and how Mary not only shows us how to be a good Christian but also a good human being. Mary's life goes beyond a pious, ethereal musing and enters into the messiness of human existence. Mary had to deal with being a woman who got pregnant seemingly outside of marriage and all the ridicule that came with that in the Ancient World. She had to give birth on the floor of a stable where animals lived. Then, after all of this, she has to flee to a foreign country to protect her child who one day will be killed anyway. Mary's life intersects with every suffering we experience today from the single woman who is left pregnant with no one to help her to the refugee who has to flee their home to the mother whose child has an illness that will cause it to die young or not even be born at all. The world wishes to tell us that we are on our own, that we must take our lives into our own hands and do what we think is best to survive. Mary chose another way. When she had to stand with Christ at the Cross, she chose Love. As swords pierced her Immaculate Heart, she did not despair but loved the world even though it caused her Beloved to suffer. Evil devours itself, but if Love does not win out in the end, evil will simply keep coming back in other forms. That is why we need Mary, the World's First Love. Reviewed by David Homoelle

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being." Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him." While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 98:1, 2-3, 3-4

Sing to the LORD a new song,
for he has done wondrous deeds;
his right hand has won victory for him,
his holy arm. R.

The LORD has made his salvation known:
in the sight of the nations he has revealed his justice.

He has remembered his kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel. R.

All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation by our God.
Sing joyfully to the LORD, all you lands;
break into song; sing praise. R.

Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Second Reading

1 Jn 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Jn 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge
the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

God's Love for Us Ephrem Feeley

God's love for us was revealed when he sent into the world his only Son. God's love is found in Jesus Christ, his Son, who came into the world that we might live.

1. For God so loved the world, so deeply loved the world.

God loved the world so much he sent his only Son, that those who follow him, those who believe in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

2. God sent his only Son not to condemn the world, but sent his Son into the world that we might live. He is the way, the truth, he is the light and life.

He is our model and example and our guide.

3. God's justice and faithfulness, God's compassion and care, everything that God has promised, all things that are good, are found in Christ the Son, who came into this world to set us free.

Recessional Hymn

Love Divine, All Loves Excelling

1. Love divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heav'n to earth come down!
Fix in us your humble dwelling,
All your faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, source of all compassion,
Love unbounded, love all pure;
Visit us with your salvation,
Let your love in us endure.

2. Come, Almighty, to deliver,
Let us all your life receive;
Suddenly return and never,
Nevermore your temples leave.
You we would be always blessing,
Serve you as your hosts above,
Pray, and praise you without ceasing,
Glory in your precious love.

3. Finish then your new creation,
Pure and spotless, gracious Lord.
Let us see your great salvation
Perfectly in you restored.
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heav'n we take our place,
Till we sing before the Almighty
Lost in wonder, love and praise.
