The Month of the Holy Spirit

April 14, 2024

I begin every meeting with a prayer to the Holy Spirit.

“Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of your love.”

My staff knows this prayer as we pray it each day and I have found it has helped me in so many ways. The Holy Spirit has given me the words that I've needed at times when I felt like it was going to be a struggle to convey some information and yet with this prayer I would find the right words.

In the Creed we hear the affirmation that the Holy Spirit is coequal to the Father and the Son. In a few weeks we will hear about the arrival of the Holy Spirit. Jesus told his disciples that His Spirit would be there to comfort them before He ascended into heaven and they were able to experience this truth at the Feast of Pentecost.

It has been a gift to me that I am able to pray to the Holy Spirit and know this prayer by heart. This month, take the time to learn and be able to say this prayer. It will be a prayer you call on over and over again in your life.

Amen? Amen.

THE CATECHIST'S CORNER

The Spirit of Father Damien by Jan De Volder

St. Damien of Molokai is a saint whose canonization many in our parish will likely remember, having only happened in 2009. His canonization was delayed for over one hundred years by concerns around his personality and willful nature as well as dislike of his superiors. The story of Damien's life and canonization give us a look into what it means to be a saint in the age of tv and radio. Damien was famous even in his time. When he volunteered to spend his life on the leper colony at Molokai, which was understood to be a death sentence at the time, he became a celebrity around the world. This celebrity served to draw many non-Catholic Christians to appreciate the value and meaning of the celebrate priesthood. However, it also created resentment among Damien's own order and other missionaries. Damien was a fierce advocate for his beloved lepers and spent his life tirelessly working for their betterment. He was never afraid to use his celebrity to their advantage, receiving significant donations from the church of England and other protestant bodies without hesitation. His efforts lead the princess of Hawaii to name him a knight of the realm, an honor completely forgotten by Damien except in its utility to bring more aid to the colony. This biography makes for great spiritual reading in adoration and can help to illustrate the troublesome nature of fame related to charity. (Reviewed by Colin Kunath)

Our National Emmaus Moment

Shortly after his resurrection, Jesus accompanied two disciples on their journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus—walking with them in their grief, offering hope, and finally revealing himself through the breaking of the bread. This is an opportunity for Catholics around the United States to have an encounter with Jesus as those disciples did on the road to Emmaus.

Rooted in the daily celebration of the Mass—prefigured by that Emmaus encounter two millennia ago—this will be one of the largest Eucharistic processions in history. Just as throngs followed Christ throughout his earthly ministry, our nation will process with our Eucharistic Lord through cities, along highways, and past rural towns on his way to the 10th National Eucharistic Congress.

Throughout the National Eucharistic Revival, local communities are gathering in response to God's invitation for renewal, calling on the Holy Spirit to bring the flame. In keeping with this vision, the National Eucharistic Pilgrimage will accompany Jesus from door to door, lighting hearts on fire along the way.

On his way to Indianapolis for the 2024 National Eucharistic Congress, our Lord Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist, will travel across our nation, inviting crowds of hungry souls to come and be fed by his love.

Rev. Albert J.

Exploring the dramatic question, “Can the world be saved by beauty,” the play presents the cost of Day’s conversion: her long-suffering fidelity to God and the Church, following the abortion she had in her youth. The play attempts to show that Day’s life included - but was more than - her well known protests, arrests, Catholic Worker newspaper and houses of hospitality; but that it also embraced critically important, yet less well known, commitments to people such as her common law husband Forster, her daughter Tamar, and her comrade-playwright Eugene O’Neill, as well as friends and colleagues like Peter Maurin, Peggy Baird and Sister Aloysia. All these commitments and relationships together created a saving beauty.

Worship Aid for the Third Sunday of Easter

Prayer for Vocations

Almighty Father, You have created for us some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous "Yes." Make our archdiocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and those called to a chaste single life, permanent deacons, and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ's love for His Church. We commend our prayer for vocations to You, Father, through the intercession of Mary our Mother, in the Holy Spirit, through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
And striking their breast, they say:
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: "The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm Response

Ps 4:2, 4, 7-8, 9

Lord, let your face shine on us.

I called, the God of justice gave me answer;
from anguish you released me,
have mercy and hear me! R.

Lift up the light of your face on us,
O LORD.
You have put into my heart a greater joy. R.

Know that the LORD works wonders for his faithful one;
the LORD will hear me whenever I call him. R.

In peace I will lie down and fall asleep,
for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety. R.

Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, GIA Publications, Inc.

Second Reading

1 Jn 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Lk 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have."

And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ.

The Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

All make a profound bow:
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins

and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Day of Arising Michael Burkhardt

*Day of arising, Christ on the roadway, unknown companion walks with his own.
When they invite him, as fades the first day, and bread is broken, Christ is made known.*

When we are walking, doubtful and dreading, blinded by sadness, slowness of heart, yet Christ walks with us, ever awaiting our invitation: Stay, do not part.

*Lo, I am with you, Jesus has spoken. This is Christ's promise, this is Christ's sign:
when the church gathers, when bread is broken,
there Christ is with us in bread and wine.*

*Christ, our companion, hope for the journey, bread of compassion, open our eyes.
Grant us your vision, set all hearts burning that all creation with you may rise.*

Recessional Hymn The Day of Resurrection

1. The day of resurrection!
Earth, spread the news abroad;
The Paschal feast of gladness,
The Paschal feast of God.
From death to life eternal,
From earth to heaven's height
Our Savior Christ has brought us,
The glorious Lord of Light.

2. Our hearts be free from evil
That we may see aright
The Savior resurrected
In his eternal light,
And hear his message plainly,
Delivered calm and clear:
"Rejoice with me in triumph,
Be glad and do not fear."

3. His love is everlasting;
His mercies never cease;
The resurrected Savior,
Will all our joys increase.
He'll keep us in his favor,
Supplying holy grace,
To all his pilgrim people
Who seek his heav'nly place.

4. Now let the heav'ns be joyful,
And earth her song begin;
The whole world keep high triumph
And all that is therein;
Let all things in creation
Their notes of gladness blend,
For Christ the Lord is risen,
Our joy that has no end.
