THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Holy Week

Fr. Dan Meyer

APRIL | 6 | 2025

Next weekend, on April 13, we celebrate Palm Sunday. This is the start of Holy Week. Many Catholics are not aware of the richness of the liturgies that happen the week following Palm Sunday. I'd like you all to plan ahead and try joining us for these special liturgies.

On Holy Thursday we commemorate the Last Supper. It is the day Christ established the sacrament of Holy Communion as well as the institution of the priesthood. This is also the evening of the washing of the feet. Once the Mass ends we have Adoration in the Altar of Repose. Spend time praying and meditating on the Passion as we prepare for the following day. Each Mass at each church in our family starts at 7 PM. We also observe the tradition of visiting seven churches and their altars of repose. We go there to pray as we commemorate Christ's journey to the cross.

On Good Friday we have services at each church where we spend time venerating the cross, abstain from meat, and also pray the Stations of the Cross. Please check the times for each church.

On Holy Saturday we celebrate the Easter Vigil as the sun goes down at 8:45 PM. This is the Mass for the catechumens who will enter the church. They will be baptized in Christ. If you've never been to an Easter Vigil you would definitely get something out of attending this Mass. Plan on being there late into the night. It is a beautiful celebration.

Join the Oratory in Praying for our Priests!

This week we are praying for Fr. Dan Meyer, Fr. Tom Nevels, Fr. Ed Pratt, Fr. Chibueze Asiegbulem, and Fr. Uriel Santos Garcia. May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God. Please consider joining in the Rosary especially offered for these Priests at the Oratory each weekday at 11:15, before the 11:45 AM Mass.

The Chrism Mass

The Chrism Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, April 15, at 3 PM at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Peter in Chains. We encourage you to take part in this unique Holy Week liturgy rich in theological and pastoral significance.

Feed the Priests

Please sign up for a Tuesday or a Thursday to bring Father Dugas, Father Willig, and our semarian intern Zach Jarrell dinner at the St. Mary rectory. The rectory staff requests that all meals be left on the St. Mary rectory porch by 4 pm.

Please choose tupperware that can be disposed of or that the rectory can keep and reuse.

Gift cards are accepted as well!

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to reach out to Maggie at 513-225-7296 for sign-up info.

Why Are the Statues and Crucifixes Veiled?

When the statues are veiled during these final days of Lent, we are better able to keep all of our attention on Jesus and His suffering. The veil is a form of fasting from beautiful things and reminders of heaven. It reminds us of our exile from paradise and is an image of sorrow for sin. It is also symbolic of Jesus' humiliation and of the fact that He hid His divinity during His Passion. We will remove the veils on Holy Saturday as we prepare to enter into the joy of the Vigil Mass of Easter.

Easter Flowers

We invite you to make an Easter flower donation "In Memory of" or "In Honor of" a family member or friend. Please use the envelopes provided in your offertory envelope packet or at the church entrances. Your remembrance allows us to provide a beautiful floral presentation for Easter Sunday and the season following.

Questions about the Catholic Faith?

Are you, or is someone you know, interested in becoming Catholic? Were you baptized and raised Catholic but never received First Communion or Confirmation? Maybe you're not sure about converting, but you have questions that you want answered. Whichever boat you may find yourself in, OCIA is here to help! Submit an inquiry form today using the QR code at right to learn more about the Catholic faith and how to become a fully initiated member. Remember, if you want to be a sponsor or godparent, this is a canonical requirement that we can help you with!

No Greater Love:

A Lenten Journey Alongside OCIA

Looking to dive into Sacred Scripture this Lent alongside members of our community? Join OCIA on Wednesday evenings at 7 PM for reflections on the final hours of Christ's life and ministry. Classes are held in Robisch Hall and run until 8:30 PM. Everyone is welcome to attend!

Seven Church Pilgrimage

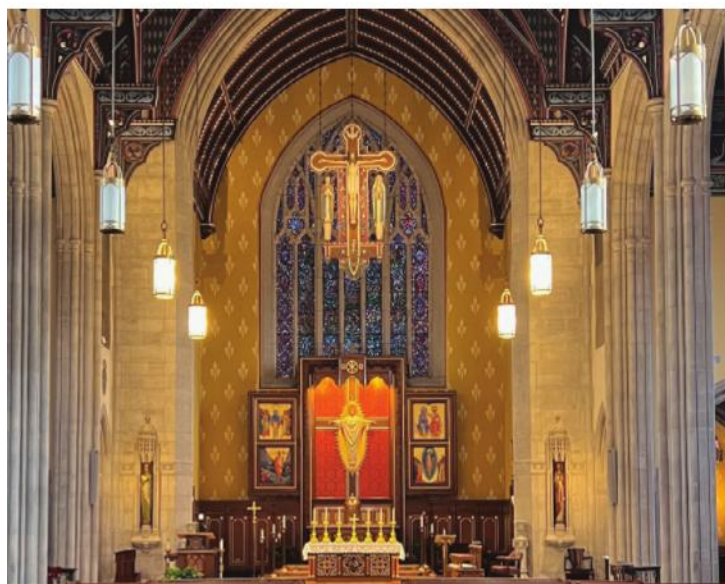

All are invited to join us for a centuries-old Holy Thursday tradition. Typically credited to St. Philip Neri and practiced by Catholics around the world, the Seven Church pilgrimage on Holy Thursday night will take us to the Altars of Repose at seven churches in the local area and remind us of Jesus' instruction to the Apostles to keep watch with Him through the night. Booklets with proposed itineraries and reflections for each stop will be available at each church's Altar of Repose. Mark your calendars for this powerful experience!

Fast and Abstinence Guidelines for Lent

Ages 18-59: Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. Fasting allows one full meal a day.

Ages 14 and up: Abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all Fridays of Lent.

Lenten Choral Evensong

Please join Fr. Dugas and the St. Cecilia Choir for a Lenten Choral Evensong this Wednesday, April 9, at 7 PM. Lenten Choral Evensong is a service of sung prayer incorporating elements of Vespers and Compline and featuring scripture readings, prayer and choral music by Mendelssohn, Allegri and Casals. Everyone is invited to attend!

Holy Thursday Almsgiving

At the Holy Thursday Mass of that Last Supper, all three churches will be accepting donations for each of our Society of Saint Vincent dePaul programs. Please be as generous as you can. Thank you!

The Chosen Last Supper Premiere

This Lent, enter more deeply into the events of Holy Week by coming to the Season 5 premiere of The Chosen at Cinemark Oakley. We have purchased blocks of tickets for each of the three parts set for theatrical release which premiered on Friday, March 28. The final showing is on April 11. Claim yours today by visiting www.eastsidefaith.org/the-chosen or scanning the QR code.

Looking for a Service Opportunity?

As we approach the season of Lent, we reflect on the ways in which we are called to pray, fast, and give alms. In that spirit, a local ministry is in need of a handful of volunteers to help them deliver donated baked goods from Buskens and Brueggers to local food pantries on Wednesday and Friday mornings starting at 7 AM. Commitment would only be 1-2 times a month. Reach out to Chris Shea at 412-551-9047 if interested!

St. Mary Church Steps Update

A couple of projects are underway at SMHP. The granite block steps in front of church need to be completely redone due to separation and water penetration. The front steps will be completed before Easter.

There is also work being done to the stair treads inside the elevator entrance. There are temporary fiberglass treads in place while new travertine pieces are sourced and re-installed. We appreciate your patience while we make these improvements.
