THE PASTOR'S CORNER

First Communion

Fr. Steve

MAY | 18 | 2025

First Communion is one of the most significant milestones in a Catholic's spiritual life, marking a child's first reception of the Eucharist. The Eucharist, or Holy Communion, is one of the seven sacraments of the Catholic Church and is considered the "source and summit" of a Catholic's life. This month, St. Cecilia and St. Mary will have many children receiving their First Communions. These children will be strengthening their relationship with God. The children have all entered the church through Baptism, and now they are in full participation in the life of the church at their First Communion. Each week, they will be able to engage in this part of the liturgy. I can't say it enough to the parents of these children that while this is the first time they receive the Eucharist, it should not be the last. They will be partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ every weekend as they fulfill their obligation to attend Mass. The children have reached a deeper understanding of Jesus' sacrifice. I know after a long week of work and school, it may seem like one more thing for them to prepare for Mass on the weekend. Now that the children have learned what Jesus' sacrifice has given them, the children are going to want to receive the Eucharist each week with their community. Please be supportive and get them to Mass, so that they can be part of the full participation they have been granted.

IMPORTANT WEDDING PLANNING UPDATE: You need to be an active parishioner at one of our three churches for 3 months before scheduling a wedding date.

May is Foster Care Awareness Month

As a parish that proclaims a deep commitment to the dignity of every human life, we are called not only to protect life in the womb, but to care for the vulnerable children already among us—especially those without families to love and care for them.

Today, there are over 16,000 children in foster care in the state of Ohio. Many of these children have been separated from their siblings or placed in group homes because there simply aren't enough foster families to take them in. The need is great and foster care is an essential, yet frequently overlooked pro life issue.

There are many ways to help:

1. Become a licensed foster parent.
2. Support foster families by becoming a licensed alternative or respite care provider (help with transportation, childcare, babysitting, etc.).
3. Donate needed items such as clothing and toys. When children are moved between placements, they often lose everything they have.

Please reach out to Matt and Skylar Weisenborn at skylar.weisenborn@gmail.com for more info. Your "yes" could be the beginning of healing and hope in a child's life.

Join the Oratory in Praying for our Priests!

This week we are praying for Fr. Steve Angi, Fr. Tom Denneman, Fr. Anthony Marcelli, Fr. Ken Schartz, and Fr. Jacob Willig. May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God.

Please note that the parish offices will be closed on Memorial Day.

Mary's Garden Plant Sale

Join us this Saturday and Sunday, May 17 & 18, in the St. Cecilia rectory side yard, for our annual garden sale and support the church! Herbs, vegetables, perennials and more! If you have extra pots or would like to split some of your live plants to donate, please let us know by emailing Kate Malo at kmathers9@gmail.com. We welcome any volunteers who would like to help as well.

The Thomistic Philosophy and Theology of J.R.R. Tolkien Course

This course will examine the influence of St. Thomas Aquinas on the imagination of J.R.R. Tolkien. Taught by esteemed philosophy professor, Deacon Tracy Jamison, this new graduate-level, two-credit course will meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings, May 27 through June 26. Students may register for either online or in-person classes and may take the course for credit or on an audit basis. Contact the registrar at 513.233.6118 or registrar@mtsm.org for more information.

EXCOMMUNICATION

A Clarification on the Truth

What is the purpose of excommunication, and how easy is it to be restored into communion with the Church after being excommunicated? How easy is it to be excommunicated? And is it always a formal process or can it happen in the exact moment that an offense is committed? What are some of the excommunicable offenses? These are only a few of the questions many Catholics and non-Catholics have surrounding this topic that is so often misunderstood. Join Fr. Zach Cecil for a conversation that will bring all these fears and false impressions into the light!

Rest in peace, Fr. David Robisch

Fr. David Robisch passed away on Saturday, May 3, at the age of 87 after a years-long struggle with Parkinson's disease.

He was ordained to the priesthood on December 22, 1962 by Archbishop Karl J. Alter after studying at St. Gregory and Mount St. Mary Seminaries and completing graduate studies at Xavier University. He taught at Elder High School and served as Assistant Director at the University of Cincinnati's Newman Center. From 1965 to 1970, he was Secretary to Bishop Edward A. McCarthy and Assistant Chancellor for the archdiocese. The following ten years were spent as Spiritual Director at St. Gregory Seminary.

He served at many parishes before being named pastor of St. Mary Hyde Park in 1991 where he served until 2007. Rest in peace, good and faithful servant.

Questions about the Catholic Faith?

Are you, or is someone you know, interested in becoming Catholic? Submit an inquiry form today using the QR code at right to learn more about the Catholic faith and how to become a fully initiated member. Remember, if you want to be a sponsor or godparent, this is a canonical requirement that we can help you with!

Jubilee Year 2025

The Archdiocese has launched a web page with information for the Jubilee Year 2025. Visit catholicaoc.org/jubilee-2025 to learn about the Church's celebration of an Ordinary Jubilee every 25 years, obtaining the Jubilee indulgence, pilgrimage sites within the archdiocese, and a special pilgrimage to Italy in October 2025.

A Call to Vocations

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God's voice amidst the noise and busy-ness of our lives can be difficult. But He is always there to guide and help us, and He has given us other people and resources to help us, as well. If you think God may be calling you to religious life and you need someone to talk to, call Father Michael Willig at (513) 263-3390.

The Permanent Diaconate

Any man who may be discerning a possible vocation to serve the Church as a Permanent Deacon should contact Deacon Mark Machuga, Director of the Office of the Diaconate, to discuss the discernment process, prerequisites and the formation cycle. Deacon Mark can be reached at 513.263.6641 or deaconoffice@catholicaoc.org.

Cross the Bridge for Life

Join thousands of others on Sunday, June 1 at 1 PM, for the annual Cross the Bridge for Life across the Purple People Bridge to raise awareness for the sanctity of human life – born and unborn. For more information, visit CrossTheBridgeForLife.org.

Glória in excelsis Deo.
The Novus Ordo Latin Mass is celebrated every Tuesday at 9AM at Saint Cecilia. Booklets are available at the doors to guide you through the Mass.

Marriage Solutions

If you are having trouble within your marriage, especially if you are considering separation, the Church is here to help you. There is no such thing as Catholic divorce, as marriage is a permanent, unbreakable institution. Even if you think you and your spouse are beyond all reconciliation, there is hope and there is help. Even if you are separated or civilly divorced, your marriage bond is not broken. Please reach out to Deacon Nathan (deaconnathan@stceciliacincinnati.org) for a confidential meeting. Our clergy will either try to help you here, or guide you toward someone who can.

However, there are times when two people have attempted marriage invalidly, have separated, and are in need of the Church's help in order to marry in the future. Catholics who are in this state do not need to refrain from the Sacraments unless they have already attempted marriage again or are in a relationship with a person other than their spouse. If you suspect your prior marriage may be invalid, we can help with the annulment process. Please reach out to Joe Fondacaro at 513-871-5757, ext. 222 for help. All inquiries regarding your current or past marriage are kept in the strictest confidence.

EPIC Trip to the Museum

Ready to start your summer with an off camps tour at the Cincinnati Art Museum in Eden Park? On Wednesday, June 11, we will gather in the lobby at 11 AM. We will have a docent-led tour of the Modern and Contemporary Ceramics collection. The gallery features a selection of ceramics collected over the last seven decades by regionally, nationally, and internationally recognized artists. The Terrace Café has been reserved for us to enjoy lunch featuring a variety of soups, salads and sandwiches inspired by works in the museum's collections. Plenty of free parking. No cost for the tour. Lunch is on your own. Limit 30 guests. The Café will take 15 guests at a time. We will divide into two groups. One will tour while the other enjoys lunch and then we will switch places. While you are in the area, on your own, continue the afternoon with the 2025 Butterfly show at the Krohn Conservatory or visit charming Mt. Adams. The City View Tavern on Oregon Street is an eclectic place with a great view. "The purpose of life is to live it, to taste it, to experience it to the utmost." RSVP to Mary Landrum at mlandrum@eastsideregion.org by June 2.

Singles Paint and Sip

This summer, we're changing it up a bit from our traditional speed dating event. We're opting for a more laid back version of what we usually host. Our Paint & Sip will be much more casual, and will give you an opportunity to chat with the other attendees in an organic way. We will start in the courtyard outside Robisch Hall at St. Mary on June 7 at 6 PM, with drinks and appetizers and a chance to mix and mingle with each other. Then, we'll head inside for the main event. You'll all be sitting at assigned tables while you're guided through a painting — feel free to bring a drink to sip on while you paint! Everything will be ready for you at your table, so all you'll have to do is roll up your sleeves and paint! It doesn't matter if you've got lots of painting experience, or if you've never painted before in your life. The instructor will be there to walk you through it. It will be a relaxed atmosphere that will give you plenty of chances to chat with others. Registration for this event is now open!
