THE PASTOR'S CORNER

Father's Day | Feast of the Holy Trinity

Fr. James

JUNE | 15 | 2025

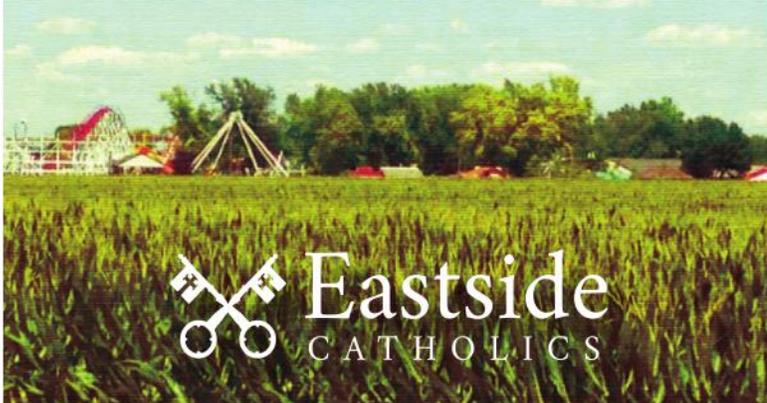

The Feast of the Holy Trinity honors the mystery of God in three divine persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God our Father is the perfect source of all love and self-giving. He serves as the ultimate model for human fathers. This weekend we also celebrate fathers and it is a wonderful opportunity to reflect on how earthly fathers are called to embody the qualities of being loving, protective and life-giving. The feast of the Holy Trinity is the perfect time to elevate Father's Day, inviting all of us to not only honor human fathers but also the eternal Father who reveals the fullness of love within the unity of the Trinity.

A Call to Vocations

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God's voice amidst the noise and busy-ness of our lives can be difficult. If you think God may be calling you to religious life and you need someone to talk to, call Father Michael Wilig at (513) 263-3390.

The Permanent Diaconate

Any man who may be discerning a possible vocation to serve the Church as a Permanent Deacon should contact Deacon Mark Machuga, Director of the Office of the Diaconate, to discuss the discernment process, prerequisites and the formation cycle. Interpreting Sacred Scripture: A CATHOLIC APPROACH

Join Eastside Catholic Seminarian Intern Zach Jarrell for a conversation on how we as Catholics come to understand the Bible. What does it mean to read Scripture "literarily" and not just "literally?" Why doesn't the Church believe in sola scriptura? Find the answers to these and many more questions

Questions about the Catholic Faith?

Are you, or is someone you know, interested in becoming Catholic? Submit an inquiry form today using the QR code at right to learn more about the Catholic faith and how to become a fully initiated member. Remember, if you want to be a sponsor or godparent, this is a canonical requirement that we can help you with!

Glória in excelsis Deo.
The Novus Ordo Latin Mass is celebrated every Tuesday at 9AM at Saint Cecilia. Booklets are available at the doors to guide you through the Mass.

Marriage Solutions

If you are having trouble within your marriage, especially if you are considering separation, the Church is here to help you. There is no such thing as Catholic divorce, as marriage is a permanent, unbreakable institution. Even if you think you and your spouse are beyond all reconciliation, there is hope and there is help. Even if you are separated or civilly divorced, your marriage bond is not broken. Please reach out to Deacon Nathan (deaconnathan@stceciliacincinnati.org) for a confidential meeting. Our clergy will either try to help you here, or guide you toward someone who can.

However, there are times when two people have attempted marriage invalidly, have separated, and are in need of the Church's help in order to marry in the future. Catholics who are in this state do not need to refrain from the Sacraments unless they have already attempted marriage again or are in a relationship with a person other than their spouse. If you suspect your prior marriage may be invalid, we can help with the annulment process. Please reach out to Joe Fondacaro at 513-871-5757, ext. 222 for help. All inquiries regarding your current or past marriage are kept in the strictest confidence.

Pregnancy Center Plus Chastity Educator

Pregnancy Center Plus is hiring a full-time Catholic Chastity Educator to present fun, relatable lessons on God's plan for our relationships to Catholic middle/high schools across the Archdiocese. Requires dedication to the pro-life mission, strong presentation skills, and a heart for relaying Church teaching to the youth. For more information, go to supportpcplus.org. Send resume and cover letter to Laura Curran at lcurran@pcplus.org. Apply now, and make an impact in the hearts and minds of thousands of teens across the Archdiocese!
