The Feast of All Souls: The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed

Fr. James

NOVEMBER | 2 | 2025

Under Abbot Odilo of Cluny, monasteries in the 11th century started a tradition of praying for the dead on the second day of November. This tradition was started because of our Catholic belief that people are not perfect at their time of death, so they need to go through a time of purification. We believe that is the time spent in Purgatory. We grieve our loved ones when they pass, and this is a time to not forget them, but to keep them in our prayers and help them to gain heaven. This is a day when many people visit cemeteries to pray for those who have died in the past few years. This is such a great gift we can give them to help free them from sin.

“I would go so far as to say that if there was not purgatory, then we would have to invent it, for who would dare say of himself that he was able to stand directly before God. And yet we don't want to be, to use an image from scripture, ‘a pot that turned out wrong,’ that has to be thrown away; we want to be able to be put right. Purgatory basically means that God can put the pieces back together again. That He can cleanse us in such a way that we are able to be with Him and can stand there in the fullness of life. Purgatory strips off from one person what is unbearable and from another the inability to bear certain things, so that in each of them a pure heart is revealed and we can see that we all belong together in one enormous symphony of being.”

– Pope Benedict XVI

Join the Oratory in Praying for our Priests!

This week we are praying for Fr. Mark Bredestege, Fr. Stephen Hughes, Fr. Mike Paraniuk, Fr. Ed Smith, and Fr. Michael Willig. May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God.

This week we celebrate Vocations Awareness Week. Fr. Michael Willig, the Vocations Director of the archdiocese, had beautiful holy cards created and we will have them available after Masses at all of our churches.

St. Cecilia School has seminarians teach several grades throughout the year. The Children of Mary sisters help out in the primary grades in the spring.

St. Mary School will set up a prayer table in the front hallway where students can offer prayers for priests, deacons, and sisters. Each morning over the PA there will be an announcement on the vocation theme of the day. Students will create THANK YOU cards to be sent to the seminarians and will submit to the teachers a vocation poster that will highlight the various vocations and the good work done by these individuals. Details to enter the contest will be shared with students in their religion classes. Frs. Jamie, Alex, and Jones will be the judges!

The Oratory has a monthly Holy Hour dedicated to praying for our priests. They also highlight a group of priests to pray for each week in our bulletin.

Our Homeschool families will have a vocation talk from Fr. Jones in St. Cecilia Church with a social afterward.
