Each year, we set aside a special week to focus on Vocations Awareness. It is a good time to reflect, pray, and support those who may be hearing God’s call to the priesthood or religious life. In our archdiocese, we are blessed to have Fr. Mike Willig, who leads this mission with great dedication. As our Vocations Director, Fr. Mike works tirelessly, answering calls and guiding those who are discerning a religious vocation. His compassion, wisdom, and commitment are a gift to our community.

Discerning God’s call is no small task. For many young adults, it begins with a quiet stirring, and through prayer, that call can become a clear and life-giving direction. Responding to God’s call requires courage and sacrifice, but it also brings profound joy and fulfillment. The vocation to priesthood and religious life is not just a path, it’s a daily “yes” to something greater than oneself.

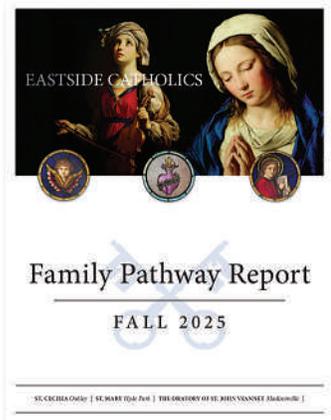

Throughout this past week, our schools and parishes united in prayer for vocations, and to learn more about the beauty of religious life. Let us continue to support and encourage those who are listening for God’s voice, and may our prayers help guide them on their journey.

The St. Cecilia students dressed in red, white and blue for a fundraiser that provided funds for the Honor Flight Program, which provides veterans with fully-paid flights to D.C. to visit memorials built in their honor. The Honor Flight mission is to show deep gratitude to the men and women who served our country by giving them a day of remembrance.

At St. Mary, the school will hold its annual assembly on November 11 to honor veterans. School children are asked to invite family members who served or are currently serving in the U.S. Armed Forces.

1-4 | All Saints Parade! All three churches in our family celebrated the October 25-26 weekend's liturgy with a parade of saints! It is always wonderful to see the children dress up as their favorite saints. Thanks to all of the parents and parishioners who help make this a wonderful tradition! 5-6 | Congratulations! Joseph and Elizabeth Sprauer who celebrated the sacrament of marriage on Friday, October 24, and to Justin and Dakota Wampler who celebrated the sacrament of marriage on Saturday, October 25. 7-8 | Welcome, Children of God, George, son of Brian and Amy Boscarillo. Welcome William Gregory, son of Mark and Nicole Schroeder. 9 | Rest in Peace, Elizabeth Peddicord. Elizabeth was a long-time parishioner of St. Cecilia, where the Peddicords have had many family members receive their sacraments and where her Mass of Christian Burial was held on Friday, October 24.
