

EASTSIDE CATHOLICS

DECEMBER 21, 2025

The painting depicts the Adoration of the Shepherds. The Virgin Mary, in a blue mantle, holds the infant Jesus. Shepherds kneel in adoration, and two angels appear in the sky holding a scroll. The scene is dramatically lit, with strong highlights and deep shadows.

For this day is born to you a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord, in the city of David.

– LUKE 2:11

“In the beginning was the Word ... and the Word became flesh.” – John 1:1-18

This Christmas, let us reflect on these words. We can envision the angels telling the shepherds about the Newborn King. The word continues to spread throughout the land. Those shepherds were able to see the word of God come to fruition as the Child was born in the flesh. Our faith relies on the Word. We are now tasked to take the Gospel out and spread the news. What a joyous day it is to celebrate the birth. May you spend the day with loved ones sharing in this joy. Take some time to share the love God has given you and to count your abundant blessings. Let us be as excited and in awe as the shepherds who first saw the Christ Child. Amen? Amen.

Who Does God Want You to Be?

God speaks in whispers and we live in a loud world. Hearing God’s voice amidst the noise of our lives can be difficult.

As you discern who God is calling you to be, it is helpful to spend time in prayer, being quiet with the Lord, and talking with others about your vocation. These efforts and desires will demonstrate your readiness for the vocation. Contact Fr. Michael Willig, Director of Vocations, at (513) 263-3390 or vocations@catholicaoc.org to learn more.

Christmas Giving

In this holy season of Advent when we prepare to celebrate God’s greatest gift in the birth of Jesus Christ, we invite you to support the mission and ministries of our parish. Your Christmas offering is a vital act of faith that sustains our work throughout the year, helping us meet essential expenses, support parish programs, and maintain our churches. Saint Paul reminds us, “God loves a cheerful giver.” (2 Cor 9:7). Your generosity allows us to continue proclaiming the Gospel, serving those in need, and nurturing the spiritual life of our community. We prayerfully ask you to consider a meaningful gift this Christmas. You may give through our online portal (see the QR codes below) or by using the Christmas envelope in your packet. May God bless you for your generosity.

Brotherhood of the Holy Rosary

Pray the rosary. Witness your faith. Men who have or wish to develop a devotion to the Blessed Virgin through the rosary are welcome to join the Brotherhood of the Holy Rosary on the first Saturday of every month at 7:30 AM to pray the rosary on the steps in front of the St. Cecilia church. They will meet next on Saturday, January 3. Sancta Maria, Mater Dei, ora pro nobis.

Make your plans now for Christmas and the New Year's holy day of obligation.

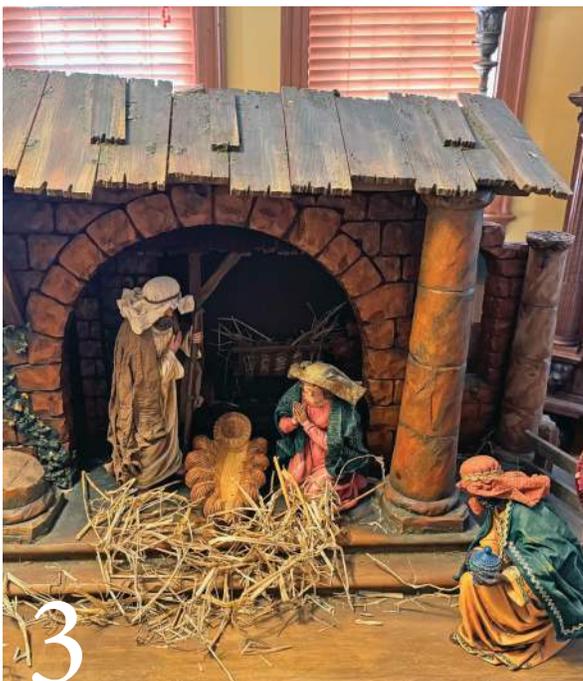

1 | St. Nick Visits Schools. We had a visit from St. Nicholas on Friday, the day before his feast day. The children got delicious chocolate gold coins and candy canes. Thank you for spending the day with us, St. Nick!

2 | First Reconciliation. The children of St. Mary and St. Cecilia parishes had their First Reconciliation service last weekend. Please keep the children in your prayers as they prepare for their First Communions this spring.

3 | Blessing of the Straw. Thank you to the Placke family for bagging up the straw for the families to take home blessed straw for their Nativity Sets.

4 | St. Nick Potluck. Thank you Monica Gaddis for the lovely St. Nick potluck at St. Mary. The parishioners felt very blessed to be able to celebrate the feast of St. Nicholas after the 10:30 Mass.

5 | Welcome Children of God. Welcome Reid Rea, son of Bradley and Amber Hurak.

Homebound Ministry

We are in need of additional helpers to take communion to those who cannot make it to church.

- 1) Currently we need someone for a parishioner that lives on Maple Avenue in Avondale.
- 2) We also have two others located at the ARC on Rosslyn Drive in Oakley.
- 3) We have two ladies taking communion to a Mariemont facility for approximately ten souls, that could use a few more helpers.
- 4) Lastly, if you are someone who likes to coordinate behind the scenes, we are looking for someone to take over running services for our homebound.

There are additional opportunities to serve and we do offer training every six months for those who would like to be trained. Please reach out to Laura Spaugh at lspaugh@eastsideregion.org or leave a message at 513-321-1207, ext. 415.

St. Mary Mom's Winter Bible Study

St. Mary School moms of all experience levels are welcome to join our Winter Bible Study: Ephesians, Discover Your Inheritance! Ephesians was one of the most widely circulated of St. Paul's writings because of its powerful, practical instructions for disciples of Christ. In fact, its six short chapters contain some of the most discussed passages in the New Testament. Join us weekly on Tuesday mornings at 9 AM beginning on January 6 in the Marian Room of St. Mary's Seton Center. To learn more or to sign up, visit eastsidefaith.org/ephesians-study.

Feast of St. Thomas Becket

December 29 is the feast of St. Thomas Becket, Archbishop of Canterbury, who was martyred for the Catholic Faith in his cathedral on December 29, 1170. St. Thomas a Becket is symbolized by a sword through a mitre. Prayer to St. Gerard Majella for an Expectant Mother Great St. Gerard, beloved servant of Jesus Christ, perfect imitator of Jesus, and devoted child of the Mother of God, enkindle within my heart one spark of that Heavenly fire of charity which glowed in yours. Because you bore, without murmur or complaint, the calumnies of wicked men when falsely accused of crime, you have been raised up by God as the patron and protector of expectant mothers. Preserve her in the dangers of motherhood, and shield the child she now bears, that it may be brought safely to the light of day, and receive the sacrament of baptism.

A Blessed Advent from all the Folks in EPIC — Extraordinary Parishioners Involved in Community

The senior members of the Eastside Catholics are joyfully awaiting the birth of the Baby Jesus on Christmas Day. Earlier this month we gathered at the annual Christmas celebration for socialization, singing Christmas Carols, and a delicious lunch. We also acknowledged the Crafty Ladies for their beautiful handiwork and years of service to the parish. The children’s Schola from St. Mary School inspired us with their singing. Several tables were filled with our donations of warm winter clothes and personal items for the homeless who come to the Mary Magdalen House.

EPIC honors and cherishes all the men and women of advanced age from the parish — these are the dedicated seniors who were long-time members of the parish, who supported the growth of the parish throughout the years, and are still actively involved in creating a strong future for the parish. Special thanks goes to the hard-working committee that plans and guides all the events throughout the year: our “fearless leader” Mary Landrum, Janet Buening, Chris Carnes, Cathy Colque, Ron Lamping, Donna Mancini, Marie O’Donnell, Bea Randle, and Charlene Schroder.

Our heartfelt wish to all the families and members of Eastside Catholics — a very happy Christmas!

We are in need of more lectors and communion distributors at The Oratory’s 3 PM Vigil Mass on Saturdays. We especially need more people to help with distributing Holy Communion. If you are able to help, please e-mail Audrey Coaston-Shelton at drcoaston49@gmail.com

Then at 7 PM, we’ll head to the ice and skate the evening away. Skate rental, hot chocolate, and snacks are all available at the ice rink. Mark your calendars and we’ll see you then!

Christmas Flowers

Parishioners are invited to remember or honor someone special by making a donation toward our Christmas flowers and decorations in that person's name. You may use envelopes that will be in the pews and at the doors and drop them in the collection basket or mail it to the parish office. You can also donate using the QR codes below.
