This Sunday we celebrate Divine Mercy. I am so excited to have all of the Eastside Catholic parishioners join me at the Oratory of St. John Vianney at St. Anthony Church at 3 PM to pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and hear a presentation from Annie Voegele. What a great way to see the new renovation of the Church while we reflect on Jesus' infinite goodness as we pray, "Jesus, I trust in You."
Amen? Amen.

It has been a wonderful blessing to have Fr. Alex Dugas as part of our Eastside Catholics family. Throughout May, he will be saying goodbye to parishioners at each of our churches during the weekend Masses. We will be having a reception after each Mass and you are welcome to bring a card or small gift. The dates he will be celebrating Mass at each church are:

- | | | | |
|-------------|--------|---------------|--|
| The Oratory | May 9 | 9:30 Mass | |
| St. Mary | May 3 | 10:30 AM Mass | * If you're unable to attend but would still like to thank him for all he has done, cards can be dropped off or mailed to either parish office. |
| St. Cecilia | May 24 | 10 AM Mass | |

Join The Oratory in Praying for our Priests!

This week we are praying for Fr. Isaiah Callan, Fr. Adrian Hilton, CO, Fr. Alan Hirt, OFM, Fr. Robert Keller and Fr. Joseph Kindel. May their lives and ministry bear witness to the mercy and faithfulness of God.

OUR MISSION

To lead people to holiness, to love each other as God loves us, and to unite our lives intimately with Jesus.

OUR VISION

Eastside Catholics will be a parish family building up God's Kingdom through truth, beauty, and goodness.

SAVE THE DATE(S)

Our intern from last year, Zach Jarrell, will become a transitional deacon on Sunday, April 25. He will make a profession of faith and take an oath of fidelity as he studies his last year at the seminary preparing for ordination to the priesthood. He will be celebrating his first Mass as a deacon on Sunday, April 26 at the 10 AM Mass at St. Cecilia. Please keep him in your prayers, and God willing, we will be celebrating his ordination next year!

On May 16, Deacon David Homoelle will be ordained to the priesthood. He was our intern a few years ago and helped in the office at St. Mary Church.

He will be celebrating his first Mass as a priest on May 17, at St. Mary Church at the 10:30 Mass. Below is a photo of Deacon Homoelle's paten and chalice. It will be blessed by the archbishop at his ordination.

1 | Grandparents Day What an incredible turnout for Grandparents Day at St. Mary. It's unbelievable the number of grandparents who show up to attend Mass with their grandchildren. Thank you for your support. 2 | Jungle Book Play The St. Mary School 4th graders performed The Jungle Book for the parents and students. These students have put in a lot of work and memorized their lines to pull off a great performance! 3 | Wax Museum The St. Cecilia 3rd grade students held their annual "Wax Museum" where students researched a famous person and completed a biography and poster and then they made that character come to life! I'm very proud of the students for their hard work. To see more "wax figures" follow them on the St. Cecilia School Facebook page. 4 | Scrutiny I was able to bless the Elect, Daniel Burchette and Kelsey Brackney, at Mass at St. Mary on the 3rd Scrutiny. They will be baptized at the Easter Vigil. 5 | Mother and Son Bowling The St. Mary PTO hosted a Mom and Sons bowling day. Fr. Jones and his mother joined in on the fun.

Divine Mercy

at The Oratory of St. John Vianney

Join us this Sunday, April 12, at 3 PM at The Oratory for a special Holy Hour. We will pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet and Litany, a short talk will be given, and there will also be music and time for silent prayer.

Register today.

Do you have questions about the Catholic faith? Were you baptized Catholic but never completed your First Communion or Confirmation? Reach out to us today at eastsidefaith.org/rcia or email hmetzger@eastsideregion.org. Our summer session will be starting soon, and we can't wait to accompany you on this preparation journey!

40s Plus Fun Bunch

On April 12, you are invited to celebrate Easter with an Eastertide Choral Mass at the Athenaeum of Ohio in the historic Chapel of St. Gregory the Great. An organ recital begins at 6:30 PM, followed by Mass and a sacred choral performance at 7 PM. Admission is free, with plenty of parking. Dinner meetup (please note venue change: 4:30 PM at Grove Park Grille. RSVP by April 1 to stcfunbunch@gmail.com.

BEGINNING ON DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY, we will begin to sing the Ordinaries of the Mass (the Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus, and Agnus Dei) in Greek and Latin at the St. Cecilia 8 AM and 10 AM Masses. This is something we plan to continue, and I wanted to share a bit about why.

Latin has been the language of the Roman Rite for centuries, and it still holds a special place in the life of the Church. When we pray these ancient texts, we're joining not only Catholics around the world today, but also generations before us who worshipped with the very same words. There's something powerful about that continuity—it reminds us that the Mass is bigger than any one parish or moment in time.

At the same time, Latin has a unique beauty that really lends itself to prayer. Its rhythm, clarity, and solemnity help set these sacred texts apart from everyday speech, creating a sense of reverence and mystery. Even for those who don't speak the language, the music and structure of Latin can draw us into a deeper, more contemplative way of participating in the Mass.

The Church has also consistently encouraged this practice. The Second Vatican Council taught that Latin should be preserved in the liturgy and expressed the hope that the faithful would be able to pray and sing parts of the Mass in Latin together. In 1974, after the Second Vatican Council, Pope Paul VI released the Jubilate Deo, a collection of Latin chants seen as a "minimum repertoire," further promoting the use of Latin texts in key parts of the Mass as a bridge to the tradition of the church amid the reforms of that council.

I invite of you to join in singing and praying these parts of the Mass with us, allowing their beauty and depth to draw us closer together as one worshipping community.

STUMP THE PRIESTS

Join us on April 28, in St. Mary’s Robisch Hall, for the next edition of Stump the Priests. Get answers to questions like why only Catholics can receive communion, clarification surrounding the “Co-Redemptrix” debate, and receive insightful advice about how we respond to moral issues in our modern world. Do you have a question you want answered? Submit one today using the QR code or by visiting eastsidefaith.org/stump-the-priests!

Seeking a Coordinator of Marriage Catechumenate

Do you love weddings? Are you passionate about helping young couples prepare for the sacrament of Matrimony? Consider applying for our Coordinator of Marriage Catechumenate position in the Office of Catechesis and Evangelization. We hope to have this person begin by late spring, so don't wait to submit your resume and three references to Haley Metzger at hmetzger@eastsideregion.org.

Please note: Next week, the Octave of Easter (April 6-11), our parish family will only have one daily Mass—the 9 AM Mass at St. Cecilia.

OCIA Reunion

Are you a St. Mary or St. Cecilia OCIA/RCIA alum? Join us at the Gatherall at Factory 52 on the evening of Saturday, May 9, for a casual social mixer, filled with food, faith, and fellowship. Catch up with old friends you made by participating in our program, and make new connections with those who are from other "classes." We ask that you RSVP at eastsidefaith.org/ocia-retreat by April 30 so that we have a rough head count for apps. We hope to see you there!
