Called to Holiness Together

Fr Jesse

NOVEMBER 1, 2026

This weekend we celebrate All Saints Day and conclude our six-week Living Gratefully journey. What a wonderful way to bring these past several weeks together as we celebrate the holy men and women who have gone before us and remember that we, too, are called to be saints!

Today we will celebrate with our Saints Parades at all three churches. I look forward to seeing all of our young saints dressed up! The Knights of Columbus will be treating our families to pancake breakfasts after the final Masses at St. Cecilia and St. Mary, and we will have Doughnut Sunday at the Oratory. These celebrations are our way of saying thank you to everyone who has participated in Living Gratefully and to all who give so generously to our parish family.

Over these past six weeks, we have reflected on God's many blessings and how we can respond through prayer, gratitude, trust, and generosity. My hope is that we continue living gratefully long after this program ends. Together, our gifts help build up God's Kingdom and lead others to holiness.

As we begin November, we also enter our Month of Remembrance. Throughout the month, we will pray for the faithful departed, honor the contributions of Black Catholics to the Church, and give thanks for our veterans.

Tomorrow, Monday, November 2, we will celebrate our All Souls' Day Mass of Remembrance at 7:00 p.m. at the Oratory of St. John Vianney. I invite everyone to join us as we remember our loved ones who have gone before us. You are also invited to visit our Walls of the Faithful Departed and add the names of your loved ones to the Books of Remembrance at each church.

As we celebrate All Saints and All Souls', let us remember that we are all called to holiness. May we continue to live gratefully, share God's blessings, and lead one another closer to Christ.

Amen? Amen.

Prayer for the Upcoming Election

Let us pray. All-loving God, as the election approaches, guide us in understanding the issues facing our communities and how the Gospel calls us to respond. Help us approach one another with kindness, compassion, and respect, recognizing the dignity of every person. Open our eyes to the needs of others and our hearts to Your truth. Grant us wisdom and courage to choose leaders who seek justice, peace, and the common good. May our decisions reflect Your love and bring us closer to Your Kingdom. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, and the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

November: A Month of Remembrance

November is an important time in the life of the Church when we remember those who have gone before us and entrust them to the loving mercy of God. Throughout this month, we honor and remember the faithful departed, celebrate the contributions of Black Catholics throughout the history of the Church, and give thanks for the men and women who have served our country in the armed forces on Veterans Day.

All parishioners are invited to help create the Wall of the Faithful Departed with photos and/or prayer cards on the bulletin boards at St. Mary, St. Cecilia, and The Oratory of St. John Vianney. A Book of Remembrance will also be available for parishioners at each of the three churches, to write the names of their deceased family members and friends. The Book will be located by the St. Joseph altar at the three churches, to be remembered in prayer at all of this month's Masses.

We are also remembering by name the members of our parish community who have passed away this past year (listed on Page 7), honoring their lives and the faith they shared with us. We invite everyone to join us in prayer throughout November as we remember, honor, and give thanks for the lives of those who have gone before us. For more information about the Month of Remembrance, visit www.eastsideregion.org/remembrance or scan the QR code.

Where are we in the Bible Timeline?

OLD TESTAMENT NEW TESTAMENT

Timeline based on the Great Adventure Bible Timeline Chart by Jeff Cavins

The Sermon on the Mount, Fra Angelico, c. 1436-1443

GOSPEL:
Matthew 5:1-12a

Jesus delivers the Sermon on the Mount, effectively announcing the "Constitution" of the New Covenant. On the timeline, this is the pivot point where righteousness shifts from external law-keeping to an internal transformation of the heart.

FIRST READING:
Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

This vision goes beyond earthly history, wars, and tribulations to show the final victory lap: a vast, unnumbered multitude from every tribe, tongue, and nation standing before the throne. It provides the ultimate resolution to the story started in Genesis—humanity fully restored to eternal communion with God.

Becoming Saints Together

"Beloved, we are God's children now."
— 1 John 3:2

On this Solemnity of All Saints, St. John reminds us of an extraordinary truth: we are God's children now.

Holiness is not reserved for a distant future, nor is it limited to the canonized saints whose names and stories are known throughout the Church. Every baptized person is called to become a saint—to allow God's grace to transform the ordinary circumstances of life into a faithful response of love.

The Beatitudes show us what that transformed life looks like. The saints are poor in spirit, merciful, clean of heart, hungry for righteousness and willing to become peacemakers. Their lives point beyond themselves to Christ.

We may imagine that saints emerge through dramatic acts of courage or extraordinary spiritual experiences. More often, holiness grows through small, repeated acts of faithfulness: a prayer offered when we would rather remain distracted, forgiveness extended when resentment would be easier, time given to someone who needs us, a gift made quietly, or trust placed in God amid uncertainty.

Over the past six weeks, our Living Gratefully journey has invited us into these ordinary practices of holiness.

We began by recognizing the ways God is already at work through our parish family. We returned to prayer and learned to place each day in His hands. We practiced gratitude by recording the gifts and graces we might otherwise overlook. We considered what it means to entrust our whole lives to God. And last weekend, we were invited to express our love through a prayerful commitment to the mission of our parish.

These practices are not a program that ends today. They are habits of discipleship that can continue shaping us long after these six weeks.

The vision from Revelation offers a fitting conclusion: a great multitude from every nation, race, people and tongue standing together before God. We do not pursue holiness alone. God gathers us into one Body, where the prayer, generosity, service, and witness of each person strengthens the faith of others.

Every time we participate in the Eucharist, teach a child to pray, welcome a stranger, serve a neighbor, support the Church's mission, or accompany another person through life, we help build a community in which people can encounter Christ and grow in holiness.

Thank you for taking part in this journey. Thank you for sharing your stories, deepening your prayer, practicing gratitude, and prayerfully considering your response. Commitment materials remain available for anyone who has not yet had an opportunity to participate.

May we continue living gratefully—not simply because gratitude makes us feel better, but because grateful hearts recognize God's love and answer that love with their lives.

Together, we are leading people to holiness.
